OBITUARIES.

WILLIAM H. BROWNING.

William H. Browning was born in Sumner county, Tennessee, December 23, 1819, and died in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, September 17, 1907, in the eighty-ninth year of his age.

In his childhood he had but scant opportunity for schooling, but while in his teens he entered a printing office, where he soon developed an ambition for wide and accurate knowledge. He applied himself to painstaking, persistent study, by which he not only gained his desire but also formed the habit of patient personal searching for knowledge, which won for himself a reputation for scholarship and made him as preacher and teacher a workman that needed not to be ashamed.

His parents were Methodists and he was religious from his infancy. In advanced life he declared his conviction that he was divinely called to preach before he was five years old. However, he dates his conversion August 6, 1836, under the ministry of J. Newland Maffitt. He was granted license to preach in March, 1840—sixty-seven years ago. He was a local preacher ten years, living most of that time in Southwest Missouri.

He was admitted on trial in the Tennessee Conference in 1850, and appointed to Cumberland Circuit, which he had served as a supply the previous year. That was fifty-seven years ago. He was appointed in 1851 to Fountain Head, in 1852 to Goose Creek, in 1853 to Montgomery Circuit, and in 1854-5 to Mount Pleasant District as presiding elder. It may be doubted whether any man survives him who was presiding elder fifty-three years ago.

This early appointment to district work after only four years in the conference marks a very rapid development on the part of the young preacher. When we consider what giants there were in the Tennessee Conference in those days, such men as Green, McFerrin, Madden, Hanna, Riggs, Baldwin, Young, Henkle and others, we are impressed with the manifest merit, diligence and faithfulness which had won such early promotion in a field occupied by such men, and also with the great advantage derived from association with men of that sort. In 1857-8 he was appointed to Florence District, in 1858 Agent for Florence Wesleyan University, of which Dr. Rivers was president, in 1859 to Florence District again. While on Florence District he called and held a successful District Conference, the first ever held in the M. E. Church, South, which attracted wide attention and which suggested its incorporation into the economy of the church by the ensuing General Conference.

In 1860-1-2 he was appointed to Savannah Station and Savannah Female College. However, the minutes for 1862 state in the foot-note that he was in the Confederate Army. He had been appointed chaplain in General Marcus Wright's brigade, and he served in that relation to the end of the war. The minutes of that conference note that twenty-three preachers were in the army. They were not all chaplains, however. They were in every department of service. The glorious revivals in the camps gave witness to the fact that their duty to preach the gospel was not neglected, and that the preaching was signally blessed of God.

No session of the Tennessee Conference was held in 1863-4. In 1865 he was appointed to LeGrange. The church was impoverished by the war, so in connection with his pastorate he conducted a female school. In 1866 he was transferred to the Little Rock Conference and stationed two years in Camden. In 1868-9 he was appointed president of Camden Female College, in 1870 Sunday-school Agent, in 1871-2 Falcon Circuit, and in 1873 supernumerary on the Magnolia Circuit. During these three years he also conducted a school at Lamartine. In 1874 he was appointed to Pine Bluff District and continued four years, in 1878 he was supernumerary, in 1879 he was stationed in Pine Bluff and continued four years, in 1883-4-5 Pine Bluff Female Institute, in 1886-7 Arkansas City. Supernumerary in 1888, he was appointed in mid-year to Stuttgart, which he organized into a station to which he was appointed in 1889. In 1890 supernumerary at Stuttgart. In 1891 he was appointed to Old River, his last charge. In 1892, being seventy-three years of age, he was granted a superannuated relation which was continued until the Master called him home.

He was married thrice: first, to Miss Sarah E. Pyle, who was his wife during his local ministry, dying in 1850; secondly, he was married to Miss Mary E. Smith in October, 1853, who died in Camden, February 25, 1867; thirdly, he was married in March, 1870, to Mrs. Mary A. Gantt, who survives him.

When he went to Pine Bluff a stranger as presiding elder in 1874, the place which was practically his home for 33 years thereafter, the Methodists had one small frame church with a membership of one hundred and fifty. When he died there were four churches with a membership of eleven hundred.

As a preacher he was logical, doctrinal, scientific, not eloquent, imaginative or emotional. Masterful in the presentation of the truth, he carried conviction to his hearers, attracted the attention of the thoughtful and won many souls to Christ. He was true as steel to the truth, to his friends, to the church and to his Master. He never seemed to court popularity, never toadied to men in authority to gain personal advantage, disdained worldly policy, was uncompromising in his attitude toward all subjects and toward all men. He gained high standing by the sheer force of merit. The high standing which he had gained during his long residence in Pine Bluff was manifest at his funeral service, the pastors of every religious congregation in the city being present to do honor to the aged saint who had passed to his eternal rest.

J. H. RIGGIN.

JAMES R. HARVEY.

James R. Harvey was born in Russellville, Arkansas, June 30, 1837, and died at his home in Magnolia, Arkansas, November 11, 1907.

His home was in this State all his life. He was educated in some of the private academies which abounded in the State before the war, and though without college training, he received a good English education. He was converted in 1854 under the ministry of H. R. Withers, licensed to preach in 1858 and admitted on trial in the Traveling Connection by the Ouachita (now Little Rock) Conference at Monticello in November, 1859 and appointed junior preacher on Warren Circuit. In 1860 he was sent to Hampton. In 1861 he was set down in the minutes as junior preacher at Hamburg, with a foot-note stating that he was in the army. In 1862 his name with others reads Chaplains in C. S. Army. In 1863 he was appointed to Murfreesboro Circuit, but finding little opportunity for work in the disturbed condition of the country he returned to the army, and in the minutes of 1864 the minutes again read "J. R. Harvey, Chaplain in C. S. Army." In 1865 he was junior preacher on Princeton Circuit.

He was married October 11, 1864, to Miss Ruth Dickinson, a noble, Christian woman, his invaluable helpmate in the years of his active ministry. In 1867 he was appointed to Buena Vista, in 1868 to El Dorado, in 1871 to Hamburg, in 1871-2-3 Monticello. Finding his health failing, while at Monticello, he studied Dentistry and attended a Dental college in Baltimore, where he won his degree as Doctor of Dental Surgery. In 1874 he was appointed Presiding Elder on Monticello District and continued there three years. In 1877 his appointment was Prescott, in 1878 he was granted a supernumerary relation, and again in 1879. In 1880 he was appointed to Washington District, where he accomplished a great work. In 1881 he was again placed on the supernumerary list, continuing four years. In 1885 he was appointed Superintendent of the Arkansas School for the Blind. He had been elected to this place and had already served one year, but at the end of the second year he resigned on account of the serious affliction of his wife. In 1886 he was placed on the supernumerary list, continuing two years. In 1888-9 he was stationed at Magnolia, in 1890-91 at Malvern. In 1892 he was granted a location. He remained local ten years though often serving as a supply.

He was on the supernumerary list ten years and local ten years, always by his own request but never by his desire. For more than thirty years he was an afflicted man, suffering from diseases of the kidneys and bladder which brought on other infirmities culminating in disease of the heart from which he died.

He was so uniformly cheerful and uncomplaining that he was often misjudged by his brethren, especially by the younger ones who had not known him in his earlier ministry.

In 1902 he was begged by his brethren to seek re-admission that he might die among his brethren. Accordingly he was re-admitted and appointed Field Editor of the Arkansas Methodist, and in 1903-4 to Onalaska and Eagle Mills where he did efficient and acceptable service. By this time he was thoroughly broken down and a truly superannuated man, but he only asked for a supernumerary relation which was granted and continued until his death.

Dr. Harvey was a fine preacher. The people heard him gladly and under his ministry souls were converted and the church in the charges which he served invariably strengthened and built up. He was a man of affairs. He was interested in everything that interested the public. He concerned himself about the welfare of every preacher, and the growth and prosperity of every church around him. This led him often into a desire that the appointments should be wisely made, into an inquisitiveness and a proffering of suggestion which caused many to suspect his motives and to think him addicted to meddling and intrigue. But this writer, as one who was in the midst of and knew him well, will testify that never did he discover aught but a disinterested ambition to help preachers and people in all that he did. He took a lively interest in all public affairs. The business, the courts, the politics, the schools, the civic and social questions of the day, all interested him, and by word and deed that interest was manifested.

The last two years he was sadly afflicted. A bowed and broken man, he halted about the streets of the town, unable to do anything, seeking companionship. His friendship—his ardent love—was of priceless value to me. Early in October, he told me he would die in about a month. He wanted me to preach his funeral in the church, desired that the neighboring preachers be notified that they might attend, and requested to be laid beside Brother Brinkley. He suffered much for a month but was cheerful and happy, and finally as gently as a babe drops into slumber, he fell into his final sleep. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

Dr. Harvey's first wife died January 9, 1894, after a long illness, and January 15, 1896, he was happily married to Mrs. Mary J. Sharman, a most excellent Christian woman, whose tender and faithful ministrations to him in his last years of feebleness entitle her to the grateful sympathy of the church in her sad bereavement.

J. H. RIGGIN.

MRS. C. C. GODDEN.

Mrs. C. C. Godden was born in the city of Little Rock, Arkansas, October 17, 1845. Joined the M. E. Church, South, in 1877. She was married to the Rev. C. C. Godden, with whom she lived for thirty-two years. She died after a lingering sickness, at her home in Searcy, November 4, 1907, leaving her husband and two daughters to mourn their great loss.

Hers was a beautiful character. There was a harmonious blending of a constellation of virtues rarely seen in one person. Among the many graces that adorned her was that of modesty. There was an air of refined culture and quiet dignity about her, which marked her as one of superior breeding and gentility.

A womanly woman of exalted dignity of character without ostentation. She possessed many personal charms. The one element of vanity seemed to have no place in her makeup.

In the social circle, there was a fascinating charm and grace, most rare and pleasing. In her home life she was gentle, kind and patient. As a mother, she was thoughtful and affectionate. As a wife, she was most attentive and considerate, and as a friend, always true, confiding, and devoted. As the wife of a pastor, she entered into all the work of the Church with enthusiasm and proved herself a help-meet indeed. As the wife of a president of a Female College, she wielded a most salutary and helpful influence over the hundreds of girls, with whom she came in contact.

Her piety was steady, constant, true. No one ever had occasion to question her sincerity. She was not demonstrative, but her life exemplified her devotion to Christ. By her life of beautiful simplicity, unswerving fidelity, unremitting devotion to the principles of righteousness, she has proven herself a worthy daughter of the grand old patriarch Abraham, in whose bosom she now rests secure from all the storms of earth.

T. H. WARE.

MRS. BETTIE BELL KEITH.

Mrs. Bettie Bell Keith was born in Ashley county, Arkansas, March 9, 1864.

She was a daughter of Col. Samuel S. Bell. Her mother died when she was an infant. Just at what age she professed religion and joined the Church, I have been unable to learn. She was married to the Rev. L. M. Keith, with whom she lived happily until his death. She died November 20th, 1907, in the city of Searcy, after a lingering illness, leaving two daughters and many relatives to mourn their loss.

She was a lady of charming personality. Her sparkling wit, ready repartee, brilliant conversational powers, and sunny nature made her a most pleasant companion. She was always greeted with pleasure in the social circle, and at once became its leader. She was full of energy and enthusiasm, and possessed the art of imparting her spirit to others.

Born of wealthy parents, reared in an atmosphere of refinement, accorded the best facilities for an education that the country could give, added to a native intellect of superior mould and texture, we have a lady of remarkable intellectual equipment. When she became the wife of a minister, she entered heart and soul into the work of the Church.

In his moments of gloom and discouragement, with her sunny nature, she encouraged and helped him in his work. By her superior social qualities and great fondness for young people, she drew them to her and organized them into church work. Some time before the death of her husband her own health gave way and from then on to the day of her death, she labored under the disadvantages of an impaired physical condition. She was a true woman in all the relations of life, and the world is made poorer by the death of such.

T. H. WARE.

MRS. HATTIE LOUISE MAY.

Mrs. Hattie Louise May, wife of Rev. J. D. May, was born May 11, 1878, and died March 6, 1907. Her maiden name was Cox. She was raised principally at Brinkley, Arkansas. At the age of fourteen, she joined the M. E. Church, South, and became a most active and efficient member. She was prominent in the Epworth League, an officer in the Ladies' Aid Society, and a teacher in the Sunday-school. She was a soul-winner, and brought eleven of her Sunday-school class into the Church during one revival.

On October 16, 1901, she was married to Rev. J. D. May. They were congenial and happy, and the writer can testify to the sweetness and wholesomeness of their home. They were religious in their home, and Sister May always led the morning devotions. Their united ministry was greatly blessed of God through three years at Gillett, one year at Sherrill, one year at Rison, and a few months at Pine Bluff, where Sister May died. In these years, God blessed them in the gift of two children—a boy in 1902, and a girl in 1904. These are left the charge and the comfort of our Brother May.

On Friday night, before she died Wednesday, she and her husband were alone in the room. She asked her husband to get the Bible and read and pray, and then she offered a most beautiful prayer herself. She then reviewed her life, mentioning her conversion, and expressing regrets that her life had not been more useful. She had our dear brother to sing, "I am coming to the cross," and "I am thine, O Lord." Though she suffered much, she was conscious till the last. Only three hours before she died, she requested a good woman to tell her religious experience. A little while before the end, all pain seemed to leave her and she passed away like one going to sleep.

Her funeral was conducted by the pastors of Pine Bluff, and Rev. T. J. Brickell of Brinkley. Her body was laid in Bellwood cemetery in Pine Bluff. The husband bows in Christian submission, and gives himself to his appointed work. May that grace he recommends to others be his own sufficiency.

REPORTS OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Document No. 1.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

Dear Brethren:—Your Committee on Publishing Interests has had under consideration the Western Methodist, our conference organ. We endorse the editorial conduct of the paper, and heartily commend it to all our people as thoroughly worthy of their patronage. We cannot do the work of our Conference without a strong conference organ, and the Western Methodist is meeting well our needs.

The paper can do as much for any preacher in his work as that preacher will do for the paper, and the publishers are not asking that the preachers work for nothing when they ask them to aid in circulating the Western Methodist. There is no interest of the Church for which the pastor himself labors that will not be greatly promoted if the paper goes into the homes of the people. The people will not take an interest where they do not know, and they cannot know about our work except they read our own paper.

The Editorial Committee, upon looking closely into the business of the paper recommended that it would be necessary for the publishers to make some arrangement whereby subscribers who delay payment shall be charged $2.00 for the paper, those paying cash to continue to get the paper at $1.50. This seems necessary in view of the great advance in cost of production, and we concur in the recommendation. It is believed that the paper can be maintained at a cash price of $1.50, but at that figure it must stay close to a cash basis.

We recommend that our people buy their books and Sunday-school literature of Anderson, Millar & Co.

We further recommend that the present constituency of the Editorial Committee be made every quadrennium.

J. C. HOOKS, Chairman.

Document No. 2.

Document No. 2 was a request of the Committee on Temperance for an hour to be set apart for a temperance rally which was referred to the Committee on Public Worship.

Document No. 3.

Document No. 3 was the Report of the Conference Treasurer. See tables.

REPORT OF HOSPITAL COMMITTEE.

Document No. 4.

We, your Committee, to whom was referred the matter of the erection of a hospital, beg leave to report as follows:

After a careful consideration of the papers referred to us, we are convinced that it is both wise and feasible to erect and maintain such an institution. We are informed that the Arkansas Conference has appointed a committee consisting of two ministers and three laymen empowered to act in connection with a like committee to be appointed by this and the White River Conference. We recommend that the presiding Bishop of this Conference be requested to appoint a committee of five to represent this Conference in connection with committees appointed by the Arkansas and White River Conferences.

We further recommend that the Commission thus constituted be requested to consider the advisability of establishing a hospital within the borders of this State, said hospital to be the joint property of the three patronizing Conferences, and the Commission be empowered to receive bids for the location of the hospital and report to the Conferences at their next sessions a recommendation for the location of the hospital, with such suggestions as to ways and means to carry to successful completion this enterprise as they may deem wise.

L. B. LEIGH, Chairman.

T. E. SHARP, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS

Document No. 5.

We, your Committee on District Conference Journals, report as follows:

We find the Journals of the Little Rock, Pine Bluff, and Prescott Districts so well kept that we offer no criticisms on these records.

The Journals of the Camden and Texarkana Districts are neatly and well kept, but we note an absence of marginal references, which renders these records somewhat inconvenient. No other Journals were before us.

J. J. MELLARD, President.

T. P. CLARK, Secretary.

REPORT OF AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

Document No. 6.

We are pleased to note the fact of at least partial relief of the financial embarrassment of American Bible Society. Voluntary contributions have been more and greater this year than for some time.

Some years ago our Conference voted that every pastor preach a special sermon on the circulation and study of God's word and to take a collection in each congregation for the American Bible Society. The distribution of the Bible by this Society has nearly reached the hundred million mark.

Without the Bible our missionaries could do but little. Service at home and abroad is dependent upon the circulation of God's word. This Society's work is dependent upon free-will offerings, and, whereas, our Church is a large beneficiary. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we again express our loyalty to this noble institution and pledge ourselves to present its needs to our congregations and take collections for same.

We are sorry to note a decrease in collections for this Society and hope that this may not occur next year. J. W. WHITE, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORPHANAGE.

Document No. 8.

To the Little Rock Conference:

Dear Brethren:—Your Committee on the Arkansas Methodist Orphanage respectfully report that we received a communication from the Board of Trustees of the Orphanage which reads as follows:

Dear Brethren:—The past year has been one of shadow as well as of sunshine for the Orphanage. Just as Bro. Fisackerly, our financial agent, was entering upon his work of raising funds with which to build a home, he was stricken down and departed this life. It was the first death ever to occur in the home since its establishment. The death of three of the children followed in quick succession soon after the death of Bro. Fisackerly. Since then the health of the inmates has been good. It was thought best by the members of the Board not to elect another agent until the annual meeting and so we ran the larger part of the year without soliciting funds, except as the President and Secretary did so from their offices. At the request of the Board, the three Conferences last year generously assumed the running expenses of the institution and apportioned the amount necessary, among the charges. Some of the preachers raised the amount assessed them, a few raised more than they were assessed, while some did not send in anything. The sum realized from the plan was not sufficient to run the institution. The shortage was supplied by special contributions.

During the year we had the building and fences put in good repair at a cost of $498.00. We also had a concrete walk made on both streets at a cost of $901.00. We also bought a burial lot in Oakland cemetery for $60.00. Besides these extra expenditures, we replaced nearly all the old bedsteads, mattresses, and bed clothing with new ones at a cost of $165.00. We made a call through the Arkansas Methodist for two persons or societies to give us the money necessary to buy two hospital beds. We had prompt responses. One from Miss Grace Stanley, of Crossett, the other from Mrs. J. A. Slaton, of Pine Bluff, each sending $20.00.

We received into the home during the year sixteen children, placed eighteen, lost three by death, leaving eleven in the home. We have placed seventy-nine children since the institution opened five years ago. Among those received this year was a bright-eyed, honest-faced boy, ten years old, whom we took out of a house of ill-fame in Little Rock. He is now in a good home, where he is happy and dearly loved. The rescue of this boy is worth all the money spent for the institution this year.

On the 7th of October, Mrs. Fisackerly resigned as Matron and Mrs. Bonner was selected to fill the place until a permanent Matron could be chosen. The temporary arrangement still stands and it is very satisfactory.

At our regular Board Meeting October 23d, Rev. M. B. Umsted was selected financial agent for the purpose of raising the necessary funds with which to erect a $20,000.00 building for the institution.

The Board adopted a resolution requesting the three Conferences to assume permanently the amount necessary each year for the running expenses of the institution so that the financial agent will be free to raise the funds with which to build. The Arkansas Conference cheerfully assumed its part and we request your Conference to do so. We furthermore wish that your Conference would recommend to all our Sunday-schools and Epworth Leagues to set apart a special day each year as Orphanage day, on which the subject shall be presented and a collection taken. We request this not so much for the sake of the money that may be collected, but that the Epworth Leagues and Sunday-schools may be made acquainted with the work that is being done for the Orphans by our Church.

We also request that each Annual Conference elect one of its members to be Conference Treasurer for its Orphanage Fund. And that all money collected by the pastors for the Orphanage be sent to the said treasurer, as collected.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. THORNBURGH, President.

GEO. H. KIMBALL, Secretary.

Your committee recommend the granting of the requests made by the Board and that this Conference accept permanently its part of the amount necessary to run the institution, each year, naming $2,000 until otherwise ordered to be apportioned to the districts by the Joint Board of Finance.

That Rev. Forney Hutchison be elected treasurer of said fund for the Little Rock Conference, that W. R. Casey be elected a trustee on the Board of said orphanage to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Rev. W. F. Andrews from the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. THORNBURGH,

J. R. SANDERS,

J. A. SAGE,

R. W. McKAY.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Document No. 9.

We, your Committee on Finance, beg leave to make the following report:

We have given the long vexed question of financing the Church the consideration we could in the limited time at our command, and recommend:

1st. That on account of the varied conditions of the membership of the respective charges, it is in our opinion almost impossible to suggest any one plan that would be suitable and acceptable to all alike, but are of opinion that as far as conditions will admit, the stewards should accept and assume the responsibilities of the Presiding Elder and Pastor in soliciting and collecting from the members the various amounts assessed against the charge.

2nd. That as far as conditions will admit the assessments for all purposes be made as a whole, and collected monthly.

3rd. That for the purpose of better securing said assessments, there be held in each charge at least quarterly a laymen's meeting, for the principal purpose of discussing the responsibilities and obligations resting upon each member in supporting the institutions of the Church, the time, place and program for said meeting to be fixed by the stewards.

4th. We further suggest for said purpose that there be held in each district at least once a year a laymen's meeting; the time, place and program for said meeting to be fixed by the Presiding Elder, who shall fix the number of delegates from each charge.

5th. We further suggest that there be held an annual laymen's meeting for the Little Rock Conference and that the Presiding Elders of said Conference fix the time, place and program and number of delegates from the different charges to said meeting.

6th. On account of the increased cost of the necessities of life as well as the increase in salaries and wages paid in the ordinary walks of life, we urge the absolute necessity of increasing the compensation paid our preachers. A laborer is worthy of his hire, and we usually get as good service as we may reasonably expect for the amount of money we pay. To expect a preacher to buy books, periodicals, etc., and spend all his time in study and pastoral work, we should at least decently feed and clothe him. With better compensation we may expect more intelligent and better service.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Document No. 11.

We, your Committee on Spiritual State of the Church, beg to make the following report:

We rejoice to note from the reports of the preachers the large number of revivals in the bounds of the Little Rock Conference and the resultant increase in church membership, both of which seem to indicate we are on higher ground.

We recommend:

1st. That our preachers give more attention to the children of their several congregations, being able faithfully to answer each quarterly as to the pastoral instruction of the children. To this end we would advise the observance of Decision Day in all our Sunday-schools.

2nd. We rejoice also to note the large number of baptisms of infants, and urge our pastors not to neglect this important doctrine of the Church.

Recognizing that the time will never come when we shall dispense with revivals that have always characterized our Church, nor perhaps evangelists, we therefore recommend:

3rd. That our pastors be careful in the selection of their evangelists if any be needed and when their meetings are finished to make every effort to conserve the results by getting the new members identified with the active church work.

We recommend:

4th. That our people be urged to attend regularly upon the Lord's Supper.

Respectfully,

F. N. BREWER, Chairman.

J. D. HAMMONS, Sec.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Document No. 12.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance submit the following report:

Recognizing that the same God, who said, six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work, also said, remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy—and realizing that we are living in eventful times when our country is being flooded with a class of people who disregard the sanctity of our holy Sabbath, who would wrench from our hands the sacred heritage that was left us and our children by our fathers. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That as a Conference we condemn both by precept and example anything that is a desecration of our holy Sabbath day, such as Sunday picnics, Sunday excursions, baseball and football, etc.

2nd. That as preachers of the gospel, we will urge our people to a more strict observance of the Sabbath day, as a day of rest and worship.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Document No. 14.

To the Chairman and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

We, your Board of Missions, beg to submit the following report:

At the call of T. Y. Ramsey, the chairman of the Board, your Board met in Little Rock on the 21st, of May, 1907, and the following business was transacted:

Some property in Clark County, Ark., the estate of H. H. Turner, in the possession of the Board, and the time having come for the administration of the same, the Board authorized T. Y. Ramsey to take such legal steps as were necessary in the matter. Bro. Ramsey reported to the Board that the matter had been duly attended to and the Board accepted his report.

We, your Board, have gone over with great care the mission territory of the Conference and we find the needs of the field to be much greater than the means in our hands, the total collection for this year being $4,585.66.

The board allowed expenses for work done, to W. F. Evans, $25; to T. Y. Ramsey, $22, leaving a total of $4,467.66.

It is the sense of the Board that at the earliest practical time a Conference Mission evangelist be put into the field, to do a much needed special line of work. But until this can be done, we urge that our Conference Missionary Secretary, as far as his pastoral duties will allow, will make a vigorous campaign and that the pastors and Presiding Elders give him their hearty co-operation and right of way.

The Board elected W. F. Evans Conference Missionary Secretary.

Respectfully,

J. W. BERRY, Secretary.

We urge applicants for aid to give brief, clear statements in writing on the space provided in the blanks so that the Board can get a complete understanding of your case.

See that the certificate of the County Clerk has the Trust clause fully set forth.

The policy of the Board is to withhold aid to rebuild churches destroyed by fire or tornado unless the same were insured.

We were greatly pleased with the visit and eloquent address of Dr. W. F. McMurray, Secretary of our General Board and rejoice over the good work he did for the Oklahoma Special Collection.

We most heartily recommend the use of the glass jars by our Sunday-schools for the regular deposit of birthday offerings for Church Extension in Oklahoma. These jars can be obtained by all Superintendents free of cost by writing to Dr. McMurray.

Our Board deeply regrets the death of our venerable and much beloved Treasurer, Maj. H. A. Butler, and have ordered resolutions expressive of our sorrow to be spread upon our minutes and a copy to be sent to the family. Maj. J. I. Porter, of Stuttgart, has been elected treasurer in his place.

REPORT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.Document No. 19.

To the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—The Sunday-school Board respectfully submits the following:

We rejoice at the advanced steps taken by our General Board in providing improved literature and planning advanced methods. We note with pleasure the provisions made for adult classes, and the publication of a quarterly for primary teachers. The time has passed when the Sunday-school is to be regarded as for women and children only. The ideal school is the whole church teaching and studying the word of God and building Christian character. Every member of every family, from babe to patriarch, should belong to some department of the Sunday-school, either Cradle Roll, main school, or Home Department.

Every school should be organized into a Missionary Society and contribute regularly to some missionary object. The Discipline requires such organization.

We believe that Children's Day has been more generally observed this year than in the past. Yet some schools have paid no attention to the law on the subject. It is not a matter of choice but of obligation, that the day be observed. We sent free of charge Children's Day programs to all schools which asked for them and promised to observe Children's Day and take a collection.

We have had no calls for help for needy schools. We do not understand this, for certainly there are some needy schools in the bounds of the Conference.

Our General Board has expressed its interest in the work of the International Sunday-school Association and its willingness to co-operate with it as far as possible. We advise our Sunday-school workers to avail themselves of the opportunities offered by the International Association for mutual helpfulness.

We recommend that the Conference Sunday-school Board be authorized to engage the services of a competent instructor to hold institutes at the District Conferences and other places the coming year.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE NO 2.Document No. 20.

It is with profound gratitude to Almighty God, that we record the marvelous victories for the temperance cause in the past year, not only in our own State, but in our sister States of the South, as well as in other sections of our great country. And with a stronger faith, a firmer tread, and a clearer vision, we will march to further conquests—aiming at nothing less than State-wide prohibition. We rejoice in the splendid work done by the Anti-Saloon League of Arkansas, and pledge to it, our hearty co-operation in their righteous endeavor to deliver our State from the awful curse of the liquor traffic. Believing the time has come for State-wide prohibition in Arkansas, we urge our ministers and laymen to secure from all candidates for the legislature from their respective counties, and all other officers, a public assurance that they will, if elected, stand for State-wide statutory prohibition and the rigid enforcement of all our temperance laws.

We respectfully pray our senators and representatives in Congress to do all in their power by vote and influence to secure the passage of the Littlefield-Carmack bill, which subjects liquor shipped from one State to another to the laws of the State into which they go, both before and after delivery. And we respectfully insist that they resist all efforts to repeal or modify the Anti-Canteen law.

We also recommend that our ministers and people observe the Sabbath before the fourth day of July as 'stainless flag day. We nominate Dr. A. C. Millar, Rev. Frank Barrett, and Hon. Geo. Thornburgh, as our representatives on the Anti-Saloon League Board.

FRANK BARRETT, Chair.

E. L. BEARD, Secretary.

REPORT ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS NO 2.

Document No. 21.

We, your Committee on Publishing Interests, have had submitted to us the annual report of our publishing agents at Nashville, Tenn. The exhibit shows a total net gain in business for the year ending December 1st, 1906, of $43,149.72. In this we rejoice. We regret to see that the Epworth Era is published at a financial loss to the house. Surely such a periodical is needed by our young people, and ought to be self-sustaining. We congratulate the management on the fact that of the $129,934.54 borrowed on December 31, 1906, $89,000 has been paid, leaving a balance of only $40,000. We commend the Christian Advocate to our people as a strong connectional weekly, worthy of a place in all our homes. The "Review" under the editorial management of Dr. Gross Alexander, is able and scholarly, full of strong meat for strong minds. No preacher who wishes to keep step with the very best thought of the age can afford to be without it. Too much cannot be said in praise of this great publication. We call special attention to "Go Forward," as a wholesome tonic and stimulus for our laity as well as preachers, and advise all of our people to put it in their homes. We commend the publications of the House to our people, and exhort them to be a reading people, since only those who grow in knowledge grow in grace.

J. C. HOOKS, Chairman.

THE STAINLESS FLAG

As sung at Conference by Hon. Geo. Thornburgh, President of the Anti-Saloon League of Arkansas.

Tune: "CROWNING DAY" Words by B. M. Sweet

Our land has been dejected,
By Satan's work despoiled;
Many homes are now neglected,
And God's own purpose foiled:
But soon she'll rise in glory,
The hour is drawing nigh,
For the right shall surely triumph
By and by!

O a better day is coming!
Is coming by and by,
When our honor-loving citizens
Shall set the right on high!
O the glorious sight will gladden
Each waiting, watchful eye,
In the better day that's coming
By and by!

Our fields may grow rich harvests,
But better far than they,
Our homes shall grow true manhood!
Our country's best display.
Then sober sons and brothers
Shall gladden every eye,
In the glorious day that's coming
By and by

The poor-house, ~~it~~ will vanish,
And want and woe decrease,
While crime and shame diminish,
And wealth and love increase,
When this united Nation
*Lifts a Stainless Flag on high!
For that day is surely coming
By and by

Yes, the Stainless Flag is coming!
Is coming by and by,
When our patriotic citizens
Shall set the right on high!
What a glorious sight will gladden
Each waiting, watchful eye,
For the Stainless Flag is coming
By and by.

Let all who look for, hasten
The coming joyful day,
By earnest consecration,
And voting as we pray.
By choosing public servants
Who will keep their oath or die
For the Stainless Flag that's coming
By and by!

*Hold up the U. S. Flag.
